Dear Ms. Collier:

Thank you for your letter dated September 8, 2015, in which you express concern that information about accessibility requirements for people who have speech and language disabilities is not included in the "Handbook for Accessible Employment".

We welcome feedback about our educational materials and continually strive to improve them. I will pass on your comments to the team responsible for developing and updating our resources for their consideration in future editions.

Once again, thank you for taking the time to voice your concerns.

Sincerely,

Alfred Spencer
